

California Escrow Association
Board of Directors Meeting
April 6, 2019
Double Tree by Hilton, Sacramento

Report by Donna J Inman, CSEO, CEI, SASIP

Education Committee

Portfolio Chair: Alma Rushing

Chair Education Committee: Elizabeth McGovern

CEA News Magazine: Debi Peters

The Committee meets via a conference call on the third Monday of each month. Dial-in information is on the CEA website.

The Education Committee through its webinars and presentation has brought in approximately $12,000.00 in revenue year to date.

The Committee is investigating hosting a bulk sale seminar in Nor-Cal; we are looking for a venue and a date.

Upcoming webinars:

May 15 – Fraud in the Real Estate Industry

June 19 – Technicalities of payoffs and releases

Lunch and Learn presentations are recorded and available on the website, if you missed a session, you can find it there!

The Committee welcomes ideas for presentation, please let us know.

Debi Peters gave kudos to Anita Rubeck for producing the first issue of the CEA News this year and providing a pipeline of articles

Debi invited everyone to write an article or send war stories to be included in the CEA News (she will edit for you.)

NATIONAL AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

Portfolio Chair: Rosanna Medeiros

Committee Chair: Lena Signor

Elections were held for the office of CEA Director to AEA and CEA Alternate Director to AEA, congratulations to:

Lena Signor, CEA Director to AEA
Colleen Grave, Alternate Director to AEA

Elections were held for Delegates to the American Escrow Association's Annual Business Meeting, June 20, 2019 at the Westin Hotel in Long Beach.

Representing CEA as Delegates, at the AEA Annual Business Meeting:

Julianna Tu
Jon Lizzarraga
Dave Shean
Sharon Strahlendorf
Deb Perry

Alternate CEA Delegates:

Nancy Silberberg
Diane Boudreau-Tschetter
Colleen Graves
Lena Signor
Tricia Vagt

Regional Associations were reminded to complete the credential for as soon as possible and email directly to Lena Signor.

The AEA Executive Board spent the week of March 11 – 15 in Washington, D.C. meeting with officials and policy makers. The HOT topics everyone wanted to talk about were RON, PACE and wire scams/fraud.

The CFPB Director is opening up Advisory Boards – CEA may have an opportunity to participate.

Art Davis, AEA's Legislative Representative, is seeking input for FinCEN:

Have you had issues?
Are people trying to dodge it?
What is happening on your desk?

The American Escrow Association's 39th Annual Education Conference, June 21 and 22, will be held in Long Beach, California. Make your plans to attend! Support CEA's own Rosanna Medeiros, AEA President 2018/2019.

Registration is open on the AEA website - www.a-e-a.com